

The former Primitive Methodist Chapel at Ludwell

Primitive Methodist Camp

The Primitive Methodists of this place held their camp meeting at Charlton, on Sunday, June 23, in a field belonging to Mr. Blanchard. The meeting was presided over by the Rev. J. Tuck, of Mere, and addresses were delivered by Messrs. Spinney, Jenning, and Lear.

In the afternoon, they formed a procession, and sang through Ludwell to the camp field, where addresses were delivered by Messrs. Tucker, Merchant, and Tuck.

The day's services were brought to a close by a love-feast in the chapel in the evening. The chapel was crowded.

Western Gazette, Friday, 5 July 1867