

Crime Reports

Charlton All Saints 1900-1999

1951

On Remand For Alleged 'Break'. William Everett, aged 23, of no fixed address, was remanded in custody until next Tuesday, at a special sitting of Salisbury County Petty Session, at Salisbury police station, yesterday (Thursday), charged with breaking into the home of Mr. George Hodges, The Moorings, Charlton All Saints, earlier this week, and stealing cash, jewellery and a camera, of a total value of £19. ? s. 6d. Salisbury Journal, September 1951