

Inquisition

Downton, Standlynch

Walter Buckland, esquire.

Inquisition taken at the City of New Sarum, 27th August, 15 Charles I [1639], before Robert Worsham, gent., escheator, by virtue of his office, after the death of Walter Buckland, esq., by the oath of John Windover, George Marshall, Andrew Pewde, William Mundy, Christopher Graye, gentleman, William Hayes, Walter Gray, Edward Fawconer, William Feltham, Edward Targett, Walter Gray, of Alderbury, Nicholas Woodford, Richard Easton, and Thomas Wilson, who say that

Walter Buckland was seised of the manor of Stanliche alias Stanlinge ; and one meadow called Withington Meade, containing 20 acres, lying within the parish of Downton.

The said manor of Stanliche is held of Walter Bishop of Salisbury, as of his manor of Downton, in common socage, by fealty, suit at court, and the yearly rent of 13s. 4d., and is worth per annum, clear, 40s. The meadow called Withington Meade is held of the King as of his manor of East Greenwich, co. Kent, in common socage, by fealty only, and not in chief or by knight's service, and is worth per annum, clear, 10s.

Walter Buckland died at Stanlinche, 16th August, 14 Charles I [1638] ; Walter Buckland, esq., is his son and next heir, and was aged 18 years and more.
