

LAMB INN, CATHERINE-STREET, SARUM

JANE DAMLICK (Widow of the late WILLIAM DAMLICK, of Charlton, near this city), takes the opportunity of informing her Friends, and the Public in general, that she has taken and entered upon the above Inn, and humbly solicits their kind support in her undertaking, assuring them that her utmost exertions will be used to merit the same; that every care will be taken to provide good and well-aired Beds.

Home-brew'd Beer, all kinds of Spirits of the best quality, from the first importers, and every other accommodation that shall be found necessary to make it a comfortable and complete Inn.

N.B. A good Ordinary every Market-day; stalled Stabling, Corn, Hay, &c.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 18 May 1807