

St. Mary's Church at Redlynch

Rev. Redhead to Move to Leicestershire

The Rev. T. Redhead, of Redlynch Church, has through the death of his father, succeeded to a living in Leicestershire. His removal will be deeply regretted by his parishioners, the well-being of whom he has constantly sought to promote, and thus won for himself the respect and esteem of the religious bodies among whom he laboured. To fill the vacancy thus made, a man will be required of deep intelligence, of Christian courage and self-denial, and of ardent love to God and man.

Western Gazette 23 February 1872