

Reward Offered for Catching Geese Thieves

The poultry-house of the Rev. C. W. Shuckburgh, at Downton, was broken open on Thursday night last, and six geese stolen therefrom; a reward of 10 guineas is offered for a discovery of the offenders.

DOWNTON ASSOCIATION,

Jan 18, 1828.

TEN GUINEAS REWARD

WHEREAS the Poultry-House belonging to the Rev. C. W. Shuckburgh, of Downton, was, last night or early this morning, broken open, and SIX GEESE stolen and carried away:

Any person giving information of the offender or offenders, shall, on conviction, receive the above Reward; Five Guineas to be paid by the Treasurer of the above Association, and Five Guineas by the said Rev. C. W. Shuckburgh.

Any Accomplice giving the above information, will receive the above Reward, and every endeavour used to procure his or her pardon.

DANIEL JOHN WRIGHT,

Secretary to the above Association.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 21 January 1828