

Durrington

COLLECTION FOR INTENDED PAROCHIAL SCHOOL

On Wednesday evening, the 20th instant., a most appropriate and effective sermon was preached by the Ven. Archdeacon Lear in the parish church of Durrington, for the benefit of a Parochial School which is shortly to be opened there, when a very liberal subscription, amounting to 16 £. 15s. 2d., was collected at the doors after Divine service.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Monday 25 April, 1842)