

Durrington
In The News
-from Australia

AUSTRALIAN GRAVES ABROAD

Information is sought by "Overseas" regarding the number of soldiers' graves in the United Kingdom. A recent publication gave the total as 2,209. The largest number of graves is at Brookwood, Surrey, where 352 Australians were buried. The list also includes Tidworth Military Cemetery, 161; St. John the Evangelist, Sutton Veny, 144; Durrington, 141; Harefield, 109; Melcombe Regis, Weymouth, 83; Netley Military, 44; Plymouth, 46; St. George's, Fovant, 44; St. Mary's, Codford, 31; Wandsworth, 33; Stratford-Sub-Castle, Salisbury, 26; St. Edith's, Baverstock, 29; Lodge Hill, Birmingham, 53; Nunhead, 24; Norwich, 23; Leighterton, 23; Compton Chamberlayne, Dinton, 28; Cambridge, 21; Arno's Vale, Bristol, 20; Brighton, 27. There are the graves of five Australian nurses and 40 men of the Australian fleet, the latter including 11 at Dalmeny, South Queensferry.

(The Argus (Melbourne, Victoria), Tuesday 12th July, 1921)

---