

Durrington War Graves

Lest we Forget

World War I

32602 GUNNER

J. T. A. WISE

Of TASMANIA

18TH MAY, 1917 Age 26

"Greater Love Hath No Man Than This"

Private Headstone for Gunner J. T. A. Wise is located in Grave Plot # 245 of Durrington War Graves Cemetery

John Thomas Alexander WISE

John Thomas Alexander Wise was born in Hobart, Tasmania on 6th January, 1892 to parents Theophilus William Paul & Caroline Wise (nee Tedman). He was a 24 year old, single. Locomotive Fireman from Launceston, Tasmania when he enlisted on 17th October, 1916 with the 25th Howitzer Brigade, 10th Reinforcements of the Australian Army (A.I.F.). His service number was 32602 & his religion was Anglican. His next of kin was listed as his father – Mr T. Wise of Talbot Road, Upper High Street, Launceston, Tasmania.

Gunner John Thomas Alexander Wise embarked from Melbourne on RMS Osterley on 14th February, 1917 & disembarked at Plymouth, England on 11th April, 1917. Gunner Wise was admitted to Ship's Hospital on the voyage to England from 22nd February until 28th February, 1917.

Reinforcements were only given basic training in Australia. Training was completed in training units in England. Some of these were located in the Salisbury Plain & surrounding areas in the county of Wiltshire.

Gunner John Thomas Alexander Wise was marched in to Reserve Brigade Australian Artillery (R. B. A. A.) at Larkhill, Wiltshire from Australia on 11th April, 1917.

Gunner John Thomas Alexander Wise was sent sick to Fargo Military Hospital, Wiltshire on 10th May, 1917.

Gunner John Thomas Alexander Wise died at 7.55 p.m. on 18th May, 1917 at Fargo Military Hospital, Wiltshire from Acute Appendicitis & Uraemia.

A death for John T. A. Wise, aged 26, was registered in the June quarter, 1917 in the district of Amesbury, Wiltshire.

Gunner John Thomas Alexander Wise was buried on 22nd May, 1917 at Durrington Cemetery, Wiltshire – Plot number 245. He does not have a Commonwealth War Graves Commission headstone as his Comrades from the A.I.F. provided a Headstone for him.

From the burial report of Pte J. T. A. Wise – Military Funeral. Coffin was Black Oak with brass fittings & name plate.– Re our late comrade Gunner J. T. A. Wise who died of acute appendicitis at Fargo Military Hospital. He was a good soldier and well liked by all ranks being a man who always and under all conditions carried out his duty in a cheerful and brisk manner. He was given a Military Funeral with full honours, which was largely attended by his many comrades, of the R. B. A. A. who also attended the service at the Durrington Church prior to the Burial. – Thos. J. Saunders R.B.A.A. Camp 20 Larkhill.

Gunner John Thomas Alexander Wise requested in his Will that he bequeathed all his real & personal estate to his mother – Caroline Wise & also appointer his mother as Executrix of his Will, dated 2nd November, 1916.

Gunner J. T. A. Wise is commemorated in the Hall of Memory Commemorative Area at the Australian War Memorial, Canberra, Australia on Panel 19.

(Photos by Cathy Sedgwick)

Roll Of Honour WW1 Australian War Memorial Canberra, Australia

J. T. A. Wise is also remembered on the Launceston Cenotaph located at Paterson Street, Launceston, Tasmania. He is also remembered on the Launceston Roll of Honour which is preserved at the Community History Museum.

Launceston Cenotaph

J. T. A. Wise is also remembered on the Launceston Railway Employees' Honour Roll which is now preserved in the Queen Victoria Museum.

J. T. A. Wise is also remembered on the Pilgrim Uniting Church Honour Roll, Paterson Street, Launceston. This Honour Roll was formerly in the Paterson Street Methodist Church.

Launceston Pilgrim Uniting Civic Centre Honour Roll

(Photo from Tasmanian Family History Society Inc.)

Gunner John Thomas Alexander Wise was entitled to British War Medal only as he had not entered a Theatre of War. A Memorial Scroll & Memorial Plaque were also sent to Pte Wise's father – Mr T. W. P. Wise (sent August, 1921 & January, 1922).

The Commonwealth War Graves Commission lists Gunner John Thomas Alexander Wise – service number 32602 as being 26 years old & served with 25th Brigade, Australian Field Artillery. He was the son of Theophilus William Paul & Caroline Wise. Born in Tasmania.

A War Pension was granted to Caroline Wise, mother of the late Pte John Thomas Alexander Wise, in the sum of 20/- per fortnight from 24th July, 1917.

(59 pages of Gunner John Thomas Alexander Wise's Service records are available for On Line viewing at National Archives of Australia website).

Information obtained from the CWGC, Australian War Memorial (Roll of Honour, First World War Embarkation Roll) & National Archives

oooOOooo

Newspaper Reports

ROLL OF HONOUR

Word was received yesterday of the death in Fargo Military Hospital, England, from acute appendicitis, of Sapper J. T. A. (Snowy) Wise of Launceston. Deceased was a well-known northern footballer, and a prominent member of the City Club. He was in his 27th year.

(Examiner, Launceston, Tasmania – Friday 25 May, 1917)

ROLL OF HONOUR

306TH CASUALTY LIST

DIED – OTHER CAUSES

TASMANIA

Gunner Wise, John Thos. Alexr., Launceston, of illness, 18/5/17.

(The Mercury, Hobart, Tasmania – Saturday 2 June, 1917)

RETURN THANKS

Mr and Mrs T. W. P. Wise and family, Talbot-road, tender their sincere thanks to all kind friends for card and letters received in their sad bereavement in the loss of their dear son and brother, Gunner J. T. A. Wise, who died on active service at Fargo Military Hospital, England. "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away."

(Examiner, Launceston, Tasmania – Tuesday 26 June, 1917)

IN MEMORIAM

WISE --In loving memory of Gunner J.T. A. Wise, "Snowy," son of T. W. P. and C. Wise, died on active service at Fargo Military Hospital, England, on May 18th, 1917.

It only was his body

His loving comrades placed beneath the sod;

His soul had gone to blossom

©Wiltshire OPC Project/Cathy Sedgwick/2014

In the paradise of God.
Though cast down,
 We are not forsaken,
God loves to have our confidence,
 And even as we plead,
Bright spirits wait to minister
 To every pressing need,
For darkness, light, for sorrow, Joy, the future will repay
 So every child of God who loves to keep his blessed way.
-Inserted by his loving father, mother, and brothers.

(Examiner, Launceston, Tasmania – Saturday 18 May, 1918)

ON ACTIVE SERVICE

WISE - In sad and loving memory of our dear son and brother, 32602 Gunner J. T. A. Wise ("Snowy"), who fell asleep in the Fargo Military Hospital, England, May 18, 1917.
Always happy and cheerful,
 With a heart that knew no fear,
He went to fight life's battle
 For those he loved most dear.
But now we are far away, dear Snow,
 And your grave we cannot see,
But we are always thinking
 Where your footsteps used to be.
 So dearly loved, so sadly missed.
Inserted by his sorrowing father, mother and brothers

(Examiner, Launceston, Tasmania – Monday 19 May, 1919)

Gunner J. T. A. Wise does not have a Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstone. His headstone was "erected by his Comrades of the A.I.F."

Greater Love Hath No Man Than This

Photo of Gunner J. T. A. Wise's Headstone at Durrington War Graves Cemetery, Wiltshire.

(Photo © Ian King - with permission)