FOR KING AND COUNTRY.

Gunner R. J. O'Hara.

Mr Thos. Griffin, of East Kyneton, has learned that his cousin, Gunner Robert James O'Hara died in England from meningitis. The young soldier, who before enlisting for active service, was a member of the Royal Australian Artillery, and the only son of Mr and Mrs John O'Hara, and brother of Miss K. O'Hara of Canterbury. His kindly nature made him very popular. He had many friends in Kyneton, who will regret to learn of his death and who will also sympathise with his relatives.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at Durrington War Graves Cemetery. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

A letter from Base Records, dated 26th July, 1921, to Mrs A. O'Hara advises that a letter from the Defence Dept. concerning an inscription on the headstone of the late Gunner R. J. O'Hara had not been answered & non-receipt of a reply within 21 days would have to be accepted as indicating that no further action was to be taken.

Gunner R. J. O'Hara does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
