

Durrington Cemetery – War Graves - Soldiers Buried

Irish

Surname	First Names	Rank	Service No.	Served With	Died	Died of	Grave Location
 Baker	Thomas	Lance Corporal	1786	Royal Irish Regiment (3 rd Battalion)	7 Dec 1918		354
 Broderick	David	Serjeant	5133	Royal Irish Regiment	28 July 1918		291
 Devlin	Thomas	Private	2899	Royal Irish Regiment (Transferred to Labour Corps, 229697)	1 Nov 1918	Influenza & Septic Pneumonia in Fargo Military Hospital, Wiltshire	330
 Frater	John	Rifleman	21818	Royal Irish Rifles (4 th Battalion)	28 Oct 1918	Along with James Sterling – died from injuries caused by the accidental explosion of a bomb on Normanton Downs, near Stonehenge	315
 Kennedy	Robert	Rifleman	15068	Royal Irish Rifles (5 th Battalion)	30 Oct 1918	Died from wounds in Wiltshire, England	325
 Kenny	Edwin	Private	25445	Royal Irish Regiment (3 rd Battalion)	16 Nov 1918		346
 McMullan	Robert John	Rifleman	7226	Royal Irish Rifles (12 th Battalion)	17 Nov 1918	Died from Tubercular Peritonitis & Exhaustion at Fargo Military Hospital, Durrington, Wiltshire	352
 Mulvey	M.	Private	35022	Royal Irish Regiment (4 th Battalion)	2 Feb 1919		362
 Sterling	James	Rifleman	22025	Royal Irish Rifles (4 th Battalion)	28 Oct 1918	Along with John Frater – died from injuries caused by the accidental explosion of a bomb on Normanton Downs, near Stonehenge	314