World War I

SECOND LIEUTENANT

C. A. McGILLIVRAY

ROYAL FLYING CORPS

14TH FEBRUARY, 1918

Charles Allister McGILLIVRAY

Charles Allister McGillivray was born on 27th July, 1899 in Whitby, Ontario, Canada to parents Theodore Augustus & Helen McGillivray (nee MacLaren).

The 1901 Census of Canada recorded Charles A. McGillivray as a 1 year old living with his family at Whitby Town, Ontario, Canada. His parents were listed as Theodore (Barrister, aged 38) & Helen McGillivray (aged 32). Also listed was Donald John McGillivray (aged 4). Also listed was Georgina McLaren (aged 62, mother of Helen) & Lizzie Perry (aged 34, Domestic).

Charles Allister McGillivray attested as a Cadet with Royal Flying Corps at Toronto on 4th June, 1917. He was aged 17 years & 11 months & his address was listed as Whitley, Ontario. He had previously served as a Cadet in R. M. College, Kingston & was discharged from there June, 1917

When World War 1 began, Canada did not have its own air force and, until the RFC established training camps in Canada in January 1917, the only way for a Canadian to become a war pilot was to enlist in the regular forces and try to transfer to the air service, or to travel at his own expense to England and attempt to enlist directly. It is impossible to determine the exact number of Canadians who joined the RFC, but it is estimated that over 20,000 Canadians had joined the British flying services by the end of World War 1.

Charles Allister McGillivray was appointed Flying Officer on 21st November, 1917.

Second Lieutenant Charles Allister McGillivray was attached to 109 Squadron at Salisbury, Wiltshire, England.

Second Lieutenant Charles Allister McGillivray was killed on 14th February, 1918 in an Aero accident at Salisbury Plain, Wiltshire.

A death for Charles A. McGillivary, aged 18, was registered in the March quarter, 1918 in the district of Amesbury, Wiltshire, England.

Second Lieutenant Charles Allister McGillivray was buried in Durrington Cemetery, Wiltshire in Grave / Plot Number 271 on 18th February, 1918. His death is acknowledged by Commonwealth War Graves Commission & as such he has a CWGC headstone.

The Medal Index Card for Second Lieutenant Charles Allister McGillivray of Royal Flying Corps shows that he was entitled to the British War Medal. His next of kin was listed as Judge T. A. McGillivray (Father) of Whitby, Ontario, Canada.

The Canadian Great War Project lists Second Lieutenant Charles Allister McGillivray as having been killed in flying training accident. Son of Judge McGillivray of Oshawa, Ontario

Second Lieutenant Charles Allister McGillivray is remembered on page 590 of the Canadian First World War Book of Remembrance, Canadian Virtual War Memorial.
