FLT. LIEUT. T. C. BARKER

Flight-Lieut. T. C. Barker, who enlisted last October in the R.F.C., and spent 3 months in Texas, has been killed in England. He reached London in April this year, and wrote an account of the trip to his relatives here. He mentions the convoy and an engagement with a German submarine. "The sea appeared a stubble field of periscopes, and if anyone slammed a door we were on deck like a jack-in-the-box. I'm infernally proud of being a Canadian – We are being attached to a fast bombing squadron, so I'll be able to greet a few of my friends besides ending the war in double time" he writes. Lieut. Barker was born in Winnipeg is a graduate of St. Michael's and was in the Dental Corps previous to joining the R.A.F.
