

Crime Reports

East Knoyle

1750-1799

1789

LAMBS LOST. STOLEN or Strayed, from East Knoyle, six WETHER Lambs, marked on the near side with a capital S within a jagged wheel. Whoever will give intelligence thereof so that they may be recovered, shall receive One Guinea reward, by applying to Mr. James Charles Still, of Knoyle.
Salisbury & Winchester Journal, Monday, 9 November 1789