

Celebrations in Honour of Her Majesty's Marriage

Plum Pudding for the Poor

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour, of East Knoyle, in honour of our gracious Queen's marriage, regaled the poor inhabitants of the village and the inmates of the Mere Union workhouse with a plentiful meal of good plum pudding and strong beer. The children of the national school were not forgotten, their hearts being also made glad on the occasion. Too much praise cannot be given to the kind liberality of that generous family towards the poor and destitute.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal, Monday, 17 February 1840