

Crime Reports

Everley 1850-1899

1861

Everley Petty Sessions, Friday February 22 Before T.E. Fowle, Esq., and Major Heathcote. William Ward, late of Pewsey, was brought up on remand, charged with stealing, in company with another man, who was committed to the assizes upon the charge at a previous sessions, four tame pheasants from an aviary, the property of Mr J. W. King, at Everley, on the 21st October last. This prisoner was also committed for trial at the assizes. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 2 March 1861