

Probate Sale of the Effects of Rev. T. H. South

Household Furniture

Small sideboard of plate, linen, 150 volumes of books, brewing utensils, casks &c &c.

Crockett & Son will sell by auction on the premises on Friday 21st Jan, 1842, the whole of the Furniture and Effects by order of the Executors of the late Rev. T. H. South, deceased.

Comprehending a general assortment of neat Household Furniture, usually found in the sitting-room and parlour, with the usual bed-room appointments, together with a variety of kitchen requisites, and brewing and domestic utensils.

Also a neat lot of plate, some of a very modern description.

A variety of books in general literature, sermons &c.

With the whole of the effects of the deceased clergyman (without the least reserve).

On view the morning of sale, commencing punctually at 11 o'clock.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 20 January 1842