

Parish Church News

Great Chalfield

1800-1899

1809

The Rev. Richard Warner, Curate of St. James in Bath, is presented by Sir Harry Neale to the Rectory of Great Chalfield, in this county, vacant by the death of Rev. Clement Glynn Salisbury and Winchester Gazette, 24 April 1809

1857

The Rectory of Great Chalfield near Westbury in this county, is fallen vacant by the death of the Rev. Richard Warner, the incumbent, who has held the living nearly 50 years. The parish is very small having only about a population of 20 or 30 persons, and the value of the preferment rather under £200.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 6 August 1857

Benefices and Appointments Vacant. Rectories – Great Chalfield, Wilts, Diocese of Salisbury. Value, £162. Patron Lady Neale. Rev. R. Warner deceased. Buckinghamshire Herald, 15 August 1857

Ecclesiastical Intelligence Appointments - The Bishop of Salisbury has instituted the Rev. George Mullins, M.A. to the Rectory of Great Chalfield near Melksham, Wiltshire, vice the Rev. R. Warner, M.A. on the nomination of Lady Neale London Standard, 9 September 1857

1878

Preferments and Appointments Rev. Edward Kingston, M.A., Rector of Great Chalfield, Wilts. Patron the Dowager Lady Burrard Yorkshire Post and Leeds Intelligence, 5 September 1878