

Coroner's Inquest Report

Inquest of Sarah Spackman

Inquests taken before Mr. Coroner Sylvester

At Great Chalfield on Miss Sarah Spackman, aged 51 years. The deceased had eaten a hearty dinner and accompanied her sister to Staverton church. On her return she was seized with a fainting fit arising from a weak heart, and died instantly.

Verdict "Died from natural causes"

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette 2 May 1867