

Wedding Bells

Miss Doris Mary Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Randall, of Nobles Gate Lodge, Bells Yew Green, Frant, was married on Saturday at All Saints Church, Great Chalfield, to Mr. George Alfred Church, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Church, of Mill Cottages, Great Chalfield, Melksham, Wilts. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dress of white brocade, with short train and very old 8 foot veil. She carried a prayer book. The bride's mother was dressed in navy blue. The sister of the bride, Miss Elsie Randall, was in attendance, wearing a flowered dress of silk voile, and carrying a prayer book. She received a brooch from the bridegroom. Mr. James George Overall was best man, and the choral service was conducted by the Right Rev. Canon Sangster. Hymns included "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" and "O Perfect Love". Mr. V. Shadwell was at the organ. The reception was held at Chalfield Jubilee Pavilion, where some 50 guests were entertained. The honeymoon was spent in Kent and London, and the future home of the couple is at Holt, Wiltshire. For travelling, the bride wore a pale blue crepe-de-chine dress, with hat to match. Many useful presents were received.
