

The Royal Oak

Supper to Choir and Bell Ringers

The Rector (Rev. F. W. Macdonald) kindly entertained the choir and ringers together with the churchwardens and sidesmen, to supper at the Royal Oak on Monday night.

There were present the Rector, who presided, Messrs. T. May and H. Lever (churchwardens), H. C. Martin, W. Hatfield, S. Plowman, J. Draper, George Down, John Smith, William Snook, T. Matthews, H. Simper, J. Davies and T. Nash. Mr. F. Tutt was absent through illness.

Mrs. Petty catered in her usual good style.

After supper various toasts were proposed and were heartily received, the company drinking the health of the Rector in a most cordial manner. Songs were rendered by Messrs. Hatfield, Lever, Matthews and Draper; and Mr. Plowman accompanied on the violin.

The party broke up at 10 p.m. with hearty cheers for the Rector, whose kindness was much appreciated.

Western Gazette, Friday, 18 January 1901