

Charitable Memorial in Hankerton

Holy Cross Church

Lady Winchcom daughter of Lord Thomas Howard, Earl of Berkshire, left by will to the second poor of Hankerton and Cloatley, twenty shilling a year, yearly forever charged and chargeable to be paid out of an estate in the parish of Hankerton. Formerly Wanfords and now in the family of the Whites the same to be laid out by the minister on family bibles, first mentioned next prayer books. Whole Duties of Man and other pious books and when furnished with those books if any money in hand the same to be laid out on schooling poor children. 1775

New feoffees chosen

Giles Earl, Esq., Wm Hall, John White, John Stagg