

Wedding Celebrations Hankerton

Maurice Chamberlain and Harriet Rowland

On Thursday, June 1st, were celebrated at Avening Parish Church the nuptials of Miss Harriet, eldest daughter of the late Mr John Rowland, of Church Farm, Avening, and Mr Maurice Chamberlain, of Brook Farm, Hankerton, Wilts.

The bride, who was tastefully attired in dark blue, entered the church leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr E Rowland. The bridesmaids, who wore cream with pale blue hats, were Miss B Rowland and Miss Pattie Chamberlain, while Mr F Chamberlain had the enviable post of "best man."

The service, which was fully choral, was conducted by the Rev E W Edwards, Rector of Avening.

The happy pair left for Brighton during the afternoon. The large number of presents included one from the employees of Church Farm, and of Mr E Rowland's building yard. The church bells rang merrily immediately after the ceremony, and at intervals during the rest of the day

Gloucester Citizen Friday 2 June 1905