

Crime and Punishment

Hankerton

Malmesbury Divisional Police

Wednesday 6 November 1872

Trial of Mary Golding and Elizabeth Woodward

Mary Golding and Elizabeth Woodward, both of Hankerton, were charged with damaging a fence. PC Maggs deposed that he was on duty on Tuesday, the 22nd October, in Mr Sisum's fields. He saw the two defendants pulling the hedge to pieces and damaging the trees.

Fined 3d and 7s costs each.

Mr Hardy, the magistrate's clerk, gave them his fees, and they were liberated on paying 2s 6d each.

Western Daily Press Friday 8 November 1872