Hardenhuish

A parish partly within the ecclesiastical parish of St. Paul, Chippenham. Hardenhuish is one mile from Chippenham Station, and is in the Chippenham Division of Wilts, Union, Petty Sessional Division and County Court District of Chippenham, and Diocese of Bristol. The Church of St. Nicholas was erected in 1779; and the living is a discharged rectory. The living has for some years past been held by the Vicar of Chippenham, but owing to the extent of the population the value of the living is now increased, and there is an independent Rector. The Manor belongs to the Clutterbuck family who are the chief landowners. Area, 350 acres; rateable value, £1,387, population, about 590. Letters arrive from Chippenham, which is the nearest Money Order and Telegraph Office. There is a Mission Church at the Woodlands, which was formerly part of parish, but is now within the extended borough of Chippenham.

RECTOR – The Rev. J. S. Fowle.
