

CORONERS INQUESTS

Hampton, Highworth 1800-1899

1847

Inquest taken before Mr. Whitmarsh. At Hampton, in the parish of Highworth, on the body of Caroline Gibbs, 42 years of age. Deceased arose early in the morning, in her usual appearance of health and strength, and having taken her breakfast, she was then about to walk several miles to Swindon Fair, with her daughter; but just before starting she suddenly fell down at her door, and immediately expired.. Verdict - Visitation of God. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 23 September 1847
