

Sale of Work

At the Council School on Wednesday afternoon a sale of work was opened by the Hon. Evelyn Banbury, in aid of Parish Church funds. A bouquet was handed to Miss Banbury by Margery Hill. The stallholders were Mesdames Bonner, Boulton, Dibble, Frazer, Gardiner, Jennings, Painter and Reeve, Miss H. Maundrell and Miss Yeates. During the afternoon in the hall there was a children's fancy dress parade in three sections, and the winners were: Five years and under - 1 John Silk; 2, David Mant; 3 Margery Hill; consolation, Judy Tuckwell. Six to nine years - 1. Olive Head; 2. Pauline Hall; 3. June Whitaker; consolations, Gordon Sudell, Alan Younger and Bidy Povey. Over 10 years - 1. Tony Younger; 2. Betty Gerring; consolation, Mary Dove. The consolation prizes were given by the judges who were the Hon. E. Banbury, Lady Arkell, Mrs. G. H. Wilson, Mrs. E. C. Elwell and Miss Campbell. The afternoon was spent in games, dancing and community singing led by Mr. F. W. Jennings. About 250 children and adults sat down to tea and the following ladies assisted. Mesdames Hawkins, C. Jenkins, L. Jenkins, Manners and Selwood. The competition for guessing the weight of a cake was conducted by Miss K. Niblett, and the bran tub was under the supervision of Miss Huckson and Miss Bennett. Music was supplied by the Melody Makers, under Mr. D. Dunn. The door stewards were the Rev. A. G. Duston and Mr. G. H. Heath. The arrangements were made by the Rev. F. R. Webb, Mrs. Webb and her committee of church workers.

North Wilts Herald, Friday, 13 December 1940