

Funeral of Mrs. Buttanshaw

On Tuesday, the mortal remains of Mrs. Buttanshaw the mother of Mrs. Poynder, the wife of the High Sheriff, were brought here from her residence in Bath, and interred in the family vault.

The service was most impressively performed by the Rev. Francis Goodard, the vicar of the parish, assisted by the Rev. A. G. Atheley, the Sheriff's Chaplain who read the lesson.

The funeral was attended by the High Sheriff and Mrs. Poynder, the Rev. W. Edmeades, Rev. Francis Buttanshaw, Miss Poynder, William H. Poynder Esq., Mr. Undersheriff Phillips, and John Cartwright, Esq. of Calne.

Wiltshire Independent, 13 April 1865