

PREMISES TO LET IN HINDON - 1782

To be let and entered upon at St. Thomas day next, a good convenient house next door to the King's Head, a large shop, parlour, kitchen, brew-house, under-ground cellar, four bed-chambers, a large garret, and a large garden and outlet; late in the occupation of Mr. Wm. Bennett, woollen and linen-draper, but now occupied by Mr. George Stevens, clock-maker. Apply to Mr. Bye, or Samuel Norten, shoe-maker, in Hindon, for particulars.

(Source:- Salisbury & Winchester Journal - December 16th 1782)