

CORONERS INQUESTS

Homington 1800-1849

1838

Mr. Whitmarsh held an inquest ... on Tuesday, at Well House Farm, near Homington, on the body of Frederick Ridout, a lad, 15 years of age, who, while riding on the shafts of a wagon, near Harnham Hill, fell off, and the wheels, passing over him, killed him on the spot. Verdict; "Accidental Death." Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 19 March 1838