

Crime Reports

Imber 1700-1799

1771

A few days ago was apprehended, in consequence of an advertisement in this paper, and committed to Fisherton gaol, by the Rev. Mr. John Rolt, on[e] Perrot, a shepherd, of Sandy-lane, in the parish of Bromham, in this county, for stealing near eighty[?] sheep out of the folds of Messrs. Ballard and Fowler, of Imber. Marlborough Journal, Saturday 4 May 1771