

The former school building at Imber

The New Schoolmistress

Miss Ada Evans, late mistress of a school in Derbyshire, who has been appointed mistress of the Church school at Imber, is proving a very successful teacher.

A Good Report

The report of the Rev. E. H. Corayne Firth, diocesan inspector, on the school is as follows: "The children passed a very good examination, and it is gratifying to see an increased attendance."

Warminster and Westbury Journal, Saturday, 1 September 1900