

Food for Parishioners

Mr Vaughan, the Rector of Upton Lovel, gave away, at Christmas, a quantity of very excellent mutton to many of the poor of the parish.- Mr T. Raxworthy had two fat sheep slaughtered and distributed amongst his servants; and Mr Wm. Brown gave to each of his work-people a good piece of beef, part of a very excellent bullock, grazed by Mr J. Marsh, of Heytesbury, also an order for three pints of strong beer per man, from Mr Green's brewery, at Knook.
