

In The News

Knook

At Knook, near Heytesbury, a female child, four years old, was, on Friday evening last, dreadfully burnt from the lower part of the body to the head, in consequence of her clothes taking fire. The child died about six hours after the accident.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal - Monday 2 November, 1835)