

Advert for Mr. Curtoys, Surgeon

SALISBURY, June 15, 1780.

INSANITY.

MR. CURTOYS, SURGEON, acquaints the friends of those unfortunate people labouring under that deplorable malady INSANITY, to which disorder he has lately directed his studies, under Physicians in London, that he is now fitting up a handsome and commodious House for the accommodation of such Unfortunate, in a dry, airy, and agreeable situation, at LAVERSTOCK, one mile from Salisbury, with a large garden, the whole inclosed within a high wall.

Notwithstanding the terms of admission will be considerably under London prices, Mr. CURTOYS assures those who will intrust their friends to his care, that every thing will be conducted upon the most liberal principles, with the greatest tenderness and attention.

Delicacy and secrecy will be most scrupulously observed.

N.B. The house will be open for the reception of patients at Midsummer next.

Letters (post paid) will be immediately answered.

The Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 3 July 1780

©Wiltshire OPC Project/2017/Patricia Gillies and sister Joyce