

To be LETT

And to be entered upon at Michaelmas next

An old and well accustomed Inn, called the Bear Inn, in Farrington, in the County of Berks, with good Stabling, and all other proper Conveniences thereto belonging, suitable to the publick Business, now in the possession of Joseph Mould.

Also a Farm at Little Hinton in the County of Wilts, consisting of a Farm House, a large Garden, Barns, Stables, and all other convenient Out Buildings, suitable to the husbandry Business: Together with about forty acres of inclosed Meadow Ground, and about thirty acres of Arable Land inclosed, all lying near and joining to the said Farm House, and also about twenty acres of Arable land, lying dispersed in the Common Fields of Little Hinton aforesaid.

For further Particulars of both or either of the above Premises enquire of the Widow Woodward, of Little Hinton aforesaid, who will shew the last mentioned Premises

N.B. At the same time will be sold all the stock of Corn, Hay, Cattle, and Implements of Husbandry, belonging to the said Widow Woodward

Oxford Journal 21 August 1762