

Coroners Inquest Report

Inquest Report on Elizabeth Jane Barnes

Inquest Taken Before Mr. Whitmarsh

At Somerford Parva, on the body of Elizabeth Jane Barnes, eight month old. According to the mother's statement, whilst sitting by the fire with deceased by her side a coffee-pot accidentally fell down, in consequence of the wood giving way, and the contents scalding the deceased, she died from its effects.

Verdict, accordingly.

Bath Chronicle, 7 March 1850