

CORONERS INQUESTS

Inquest Report on James Parsons

On Wednesday, at Ludgershall, Mr. R. M. Wilson held an inquest on James Parsons, aged 58, who died suddenly at that place, on Monday night. From the evidence adduced, Mr. T. Pike, surgeon, attributed death to heart disease, to which effect a verdict was returned.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 7 March 1868