

CORONERS INQUESTS

Edward Jervis 1832

An inquest was taken by Mr. Whitmarsh on the 6th inst. an inquest at Ludgershall, on the body of Edward Jervis, a native of Fovant, who was found dead in a barn belonging to Mr. Hutchins, of the former place.

Verdict - Visitation of God.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 13 August 1832