

CORONERS INQUESTS

Inquest on Thomas Jee

An Inquest was held at Ludgershall on the 20th instant, on the body of Thomas Jee, who, Whilst seated on a form in the skittle alley belonging to an inn at that place, dropped down dead without previous illness, and a verdict of "Apoplexy" was recorded in accordance with the medical evidence.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 04 August 1855