

Sale of Household Furniture Mr. John Hutchins

To be Sold by Auction, on the premises, by T. Rawlins, on Wednesday, the 22d of February, 1832.

The household furniture, a gig, and other effects, late the property of Mr. John Hutchins, deceased, at Ludgershall; consisting of four-post and other bedsteads, feather beds, double and single chests of drawers, oak bureau, dining and other tables, mahogany and black-stained chairs, weather glass, two 30-hour clocks, and one 24-hour clock, a three-leaf screen, kitchen-range, dresser with drawers and shelves, writing-desk, pictures framed and glazed, japanned trays, kitchen requisites, and culinary articles, patent roasting-jack, flour and bacon-bins, crockery, iron-bound casks, tubs, a gig, and various other effects.

Sale to commence at eleven o'clock.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 20 February 1832