

Malmesbury

1763

Monday, died at Gazen, near Malmesbury, Wilts, aged near 100, the Rev. Mr. Cook, who for many acts of generosity, and in particular his giving a dinner every Sunday to a certain number of poor and other persons of the parish where he resided, is much lamented. The Salisbury Journal, 3 January 1763, Page 3 Col. 3