

Funeral of Mrs. Farr

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Farr took place on Friday at the Parish Church, the service being conducted by the Rector of Pewsey (the Rev. J. W. Wardle) in the absence from home of the Rector (the Rev. P. Millett). Miss Margaret Farr was at the organ and the hymns sung were "Rock of Ages" and "Abide with me". The family mourners were the widower (Mr. John Farr), Miss Hilda Farr, (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Farr (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Farr (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Jackman, of Bulford (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. and Mrs. Hillier, of Newbury (son-in-law and daughter), Miss Elsie Farr (daughter), Mrs. Holmes, of Charlton (sister), Mrs. Smyth, of Woodborough (sister), Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Farr, of Hungerford (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Cleverley (brother-in-law and sister-in-law) and Mr. Albert Farr (brother-in-law). Others present included Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Miss Taylor, Miss Perry, Mrs. Head and Mrs. Arnold Young (Chisenbury Farm). Mrs. Farr, who was 58 years of age, was born at Coombe Cottages, near Charlton St. Peter, being the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pratt. At the age of 21 she was married to Mr. John Farr, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Farr, of Manningford Bruce and they made their home at Manningford Bohune, Mr. Farr being employed by Frank Stratton. Over 22 years ago they moved to Manningford Bruce. There were seven children of the marriage - three sons and four daughters - and all survive.
