

Marlborough Boarding School for Young Ladies

MARLBOROUGH BOARDING-SCHOOL, (late Mrs. SUTTON'S) is continued by Mrs. HILLIKER, and Assistants; where YOUNG LADIES are carefully taught Embroidery, Tambour, and all Sorts of Needle-Work, at Twelve Pounds per Annum and One Guinea Entrance, which includes Washing - Writing, Music, and French, by approved Masters, on moderate Terms. - Mr. FLEMING, of Bath, attends as Dancing-Master.

 Mrs. HILLIKER begs Leave to return her most grateful Thanks to her many Friends for the Favours she has already received, and to assure them that the greatest Care and Attention will be paid to every Part of the Education of those young Ladies who are entrusted to her Care.

The Marlborough Journal, Saturday, 15 August 1772