MRS. COCHRANE,

(Late MISS HIGHMORE, and Assistant to Mrs. Henryson, of Grosvenor Place, Bath.)

Returns her grateful acknowledgements to her friends, and those Parents and Guardians who have so kindly honoured her with their support since her residence in Melksham; and respectfully solicits a continuance of that patronage, which she will ever study to merit by furthering the improvement and establishing the morals of such Young Ladies as are entrusted to her care: for which an experience of Twenty-two Years I Tuition has, she hopes, in no small degree qualified her.

Mrs. Cochran begs leave to add, that she will enter, at Midsummer, on those very extensive and eligible Premises formerly occupied by Miss Hook, and now in possessions of Mesdames Evans and Cooper; which are replete with accommodations, and advantageously situated for health, air, and exercise.

French, Music, Drawing, and dancing,

BY ABLE MASTERS.
