

Melksham

Newspaper Reports & Notices

PROPERTY SALE

At the King's Arms Hotel, Melksham, on Tuesday, Messrs. R. Kendall and Sons offered for sale by auction the long leasehold and freehold properties known as Agra House, and other buildings with the celebrated Spa House and mineral spring and the grounds adjoining. Bidding however, only reached £1,425, the reserve being £1,500, and the property was bought in. Negotiations for sale by private contract are now in progress. Mr E. D. B. Locke, of Melksham was the vendor's solicitor

Bath Chronicle 26th July 1900