

Melksham October 1889

Sunday School Anniversary:

Services in connection with the above were held at the Broughton Road Baptist Chapel, on Sunday, 13th October. The morning and evening services were conducted by the Rev. John Davis, of Clifton, who delivered two very appropriate discourses. In the afternoon a united service for the young was conducted by the Superintendent, Mr. Stone, The Chapel was filled to its utmost capacity; the scholars from the Wesleyan & Independent schools being present. A suitable address was given by Mr. Baker.
