

Minety

1750-1849

1777

On Monday the 21st of April was married, at Minety, in the county of Gloucester, Maurice Maskelyne Bennet, Esq., of Ashton Keynes, to Miss Warman, of Minty, a most amiable young lady, with three thousand pounds fortune. Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 14 July 1777

1802

Last week died at the Rectory House, in Appleton, Berks., William John Brickenden, D.D. Rector of Appleton and Eaton, Vicar of Minety in Wilts, and formerly Fellow of Magdalen College, in this University Oxford Journal, 10 July 1802

1814

Died Saturday se'ennight, Mr. Thomas Keenes, farmer, of Minety, Wilts. Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 3 February 1814

1817

On Wednesday last, at Crudwell, Wilts, Thomas Keene, Esq., of Minety in this county, to Miss Peacey, only daughter of the late William Peacey, Esq., Chedglow. Cheltenham Chronicle, 9 January 1817

1824

Sunday evening the 20th inst. died, Mrs. Perry, wife of Mr. John Perry of Minety. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 28 June 1824

Lately married, at Leominster, Herefordshire, Mr. J. Morris, officer of excise, Minety, Wilts, to Miss H. Coleman, of Leominster, Herefordshire Oxford Journal, 23 October 1824

1825

Died aged 91, Mr. Charles Brown, of Minety. Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 6 January 1825

1826

Rev. Thomas Watkins, vicar of Minety to Mrs. Pipon, widow of Thomas Pipon, Esq, of Winchester, Hampshire Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 12 January 1826

1827

On Tuesday, after a very short illness, Henry Frederick, fourth son, and fifth child of Mr. John Perry of Minety. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 8 February 1827

1836

On Thursday, William, eldest son of William Cook, Esq., of Down Ampney, Gloucestershire to Sarah Ann, only daughter of J. Perry, Esq., of Minety, Gloucestershire. Worcester Journal, 2 June 1836

On the 23rd inst at Yanworth, in this county, W. K. Perry, Esq., of Minety, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of W. Stephens, Esq., of the former place. Cheltenham Chronicle, 30 June 1836

1837

January 31, at Minety, Gloucestershire, John Brown, Esq., universally esteemed and respected, his loss will be greatly felt by the poor, to whom he as a kind and liberal benefactor. Oxford Journal, 25 February 1837

1839

April 9, at Winchester, aged 64, the Rev Thomas Watkins, senior Minor Canon of Winchester cathedral, vicar of Minety, and last surviving brother of Mrs. Lander, Wellington Parade, Gloucester. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 18 April 1839

On the 9th inst., at Winchester, in the 64th year of his age, the Rev. Thomas Watkins, M.A. vicar of Collingbourne Kingstone, and of Minety, Wilts, Chaplain of Winchester College, and Precentor of the Cathedral, in which he held the office of minor Canon for 37 years. The diligence and ability of Mr. Watkins in leading and directing the choral service, and his attention to the charitable institutions of the city, and the wants of the poorer inhabitants, will long be remembered. Mr. W. was a native of this city, and for some years, a member of this College and Cathedral, till his appointment to Winchester in 1803. Hereford Times, Saturday, 20 April 1839

June 28, at Trinity Church, Marylebone, by the Venerable the Archdeacon of Wilts, the Rev. William Maurice Macdonald, Vicar of Minety, in the county of Gloucester, and Fellow of New College, Oxford, to Elizabeth, daughter of P. Hadow, Esq., of 43 Upper Harley Street, London, Middlesex Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 1 July 1839

1842

Lately, Mr. John Peuple, of Minety, yeoman, aged 89. He attended Cirencester market for the last forty years. He was a man generally respected, and, as said by one of the neighbours, had drunk more gin and water than any man in the county. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 19 May 1842

At Newton, near Tetbury, by the Rev. Mr. Estcourt, on Thursday 24th November, Mr. John Knight of Minety, to Anne, eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Lane, of Newton Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette 1 December 1842

1843

March 13, at Yanworth, by the Rev. J. Clifford Guize, Mr. John Hall, of Oaksey, Wilts, turner, to Miss Brown daughter of the late Mr. Brown of Minety. Wiltshire Independent, 23 March 1843

1844

June 15, at Minety House, Gloucestershire, the lady of W. W. Perry Keene, Esq., of a daughter. Wiltshire Independent, 20 June 1844

1849

On the 18th, at Minety, by the Rev. F. E. Tuson, T. Pearce Brown, Esq., of Burderop, to Fanny, only surviving daughter of the late Thomas Keene, Esq., of Braydon House, Wiltshire. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 25 October 1849