

Funeral Notice

Minety

John Charles Clarke

When the funeral of Mr John Charles Clarke, who died in the Malmesbury Hospital, took place at Minety, the coffin was conveyed in a lorry he used to drive.

He was the third son of Mr and Mrs Austin S Clarke, of Flistridge Farm, and died at the early age of 22 years. The Rev S W Emberson, the vicar, officiated, and Miss Annette Ludlow-Hewitt played the organ.

The family mourners were: Mr and Mrs Austin S Clarke (parents), Messrs Marshall, Reginald and Tom Clarke (brothers), Mrs K Milton, Mrs Bath, Mrs A Day, Mrs Payne and Miss Joan Clarke (sisters), Messrs A Day, F Payne, O Bath, R Read (brothers-in-law), Mrs Marshal Clarke, Mrs Reg Clarke, (sisters-in-law), Mr A M Clarke, Mr and Mrs Oliver Read (uncle and aunt), Miss Joyce Sly (fiancée), Mr and Mrs C Clements, Miss Marshall, and Mr Jack Eaton.

Four friends, Messrs Harold Clark, John Westmacott, Jim Read and Phillip Read were the bearers.

Western Daily Press 6 November 1937