

Wedding Celebrations

Minety

Helen Margaret Addison & Henry Perry Keene

On the morning of Thursday last a wedding was celebrated at the church of the Holy Trinity, Weymouth, between Helen Margaret, third daughter of the Rev John Dupre Addison, and Henry, eldest son of Major Perry Keene, of Minety House, Wilts.

At an early hour in the morning the church was crowded with a fashionable assembly to witness this event, which had already created much interest. The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev Donald M Claxton, cousin of the bride, assisted by the Rev V F Ransome.

The lovely bride was dressed in a rich corded silk, trimmed with white satin and deep Mechlin lace, a wreath of orange blossoms, and tulle veil. She was accompanied by seven bridesmaids, who wore dresses of white grenadine over pale green, with green sashes, the skirts being elaborately trimmed with alternate ruchings of white and green, whilst their veils were of white tulle, fastened with a water lily.

They were Miss Edith Nairne Addison, Miss Emily A K Addison, sisters of the bride; Miss Perry Keene, Miss L Perry Keene, Miss E L Barrow, Miss Ella Belfield, and Miss Evelyn Nairne; and the groomsmen were the Rev Arthur Evans, Mr C J Addison, Mr Armstrong, and Mr E Barrow.

Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played with great expression and taste by Mr Gubbins as the bridal party left the church. The wedding party then repaired to Rodwell-house, the residence of the Rev J D Addison, where a recherché dejeuner was prepared.

After partaking of it, the happy couple left en route for Winchester, amidst a shower of slippers and the good wishes of their many friends, the sun shining brightly upon them.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette 22 September 1870